PUBLIC NOTICE

BANK OF TANZANIA CONTINUES WITH ITS EFFORTS TO ADDRESS FOREIGN CURRENCY SHORTAGES.

The Bank of Tanzania continue to actively participate in the market by selling US Dollars to commercial banks as part of its efforts to mitigate foreign currency shortages in the country.

This initiative aims to ensure adequate foreign currency liquidity in the market. In addition, it intends to ensure customers' demands for foreign currency are met through licensed financial institutions at the prevailing market prices.

It is imperative for all stakeholders to understand that the Bank of Tanzania's intervention in the forex market is guided by its Foreign Exchange Intervention Policy aimed at promoting market stability and meeting the legitimate forex needs in the country.
