

PUBLIC NOTICE

CHANGES IN THE TREASURY BILLS AND BONDS AUCTIONS

The Bank of Tanzania on behalf of the Ministry of Finance, is announcing changes in the frequency of Treasury bills and bonds auctions.

Effective January 9th, 2008, Treasury bills auctions will be held biweekly (fortnightly) and bonds auctions will be held once per month, instead of weekly. The changes seek to:-

- Consolidate the Government's efforts towards development of Domestic Financial Markets.
- Promote secondary market trading in Government Securities and thereby create liquidity.
- Enhance aggressive bidding and market competitiveness.
- Promote orderly markets.

Please note that other terms and conditions pertaining to Treasury bills and bonds auctions remain unchanged.
