(f) in the case of dividends and profits to foreign shareholders, audited reports indicating declared dividends or profits to be repatriated and documents confirming payments of all relevant taxes; or

(g) any other relevant document depending on the nature of the request.

(2) A bureau de change shall not process transfers for investments purposes outside the East African Community.

30.- (1) A bureau de change may request any information from a customer which is considered necessary in executing its duties and obligations under the Act and these Regulations.

(2) The customer shall provide to the bureau de change information on the source or purpose of the foreign exchange to be transacted and ensure that the information is correctly and accurately stated in the receipts issued by the bureau de change.

(3) A customer shall demand and obtain an official fiscal receipt for every foreign exchange transaction with a bureau de change.

31.- (1) A bureau de change shall maintain a sound management information system that facilitates efficient collection and processing of statistical data and information and which shall be capable of providing audit trail for its own use, use by internal and external auditors and the Bank.

(2) A bureau de change shall obtain records of all transactions conducted in the course of business and keep them for a period of not less than seven years from the date of the transaction.

(3) A bureau de change shall submit statistical data and information to the Bank in the format and frequency prescribed by the Bank.
32.- (1) For the purpose of identifying and reporting any suspicious incidences of money laundering and financing of terrorism, a bureau de change shall employ customer identification procedures in line with Anti-Money Laundering/Combating the Financing of Terrorism laws and regulations.

(2) A bureau de change shall establish internal procedures and controls for identifying and reporting suspicious transactions in line with the provisions of Anti-Money Laundering/Combating the Financing of Terrorism laws and Regulations.

33. Without prejudice to the powers and role of the Bank in supervising and regulating bureau de change, a bureau de change shall conduct foreign exchange transactions and maintain records thereof in strict confidence.

PART V
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND POWERS OF THE BANK

34.- (1) As soon as financial statements of a bureau de change have been audited, and in any case not later than three months after the close of the financial year, the Board of Directors shall submit a copy of the audited financial statements to the Bank.

(2) For the purpose of this regulation, the financial year shall mean a calendar year.

(3) A bureau de change shall engage a competent external auditor who is registered by the National Board of Accountants and Auditors.

35.- (1) The Bank may, with or without notice, conduct inspection of any bureau de change.

(2) A bureau de change shall, during the inspection, furnish any records and information requested by the Bank within the time specified by the Bank.

(3) The Bank shall, after conducting inspection, provide the bureau de change with a summary of findings and the bureau de change shall be required to provide an action plan for correction of the observed deficiencies if any.
PART VI
GENERAL PROVISIONS

36.- (1) Without prejudice to penalties and actions prescribed under the Act, where the Bank is satisfied that a bureau de change has contravened the provisions of these Regulations, the Bank may-

(a) suspend the operations of the bureau de change for a period not exceeding one year; or

(b) revoke the licence of the bureau de change; and

(c) impose penalty not exceeding Tanzania shillings five million.

(2) A Bureau de change licence may be revoked where the bureau de change or any of its officers-

(a) obtains foreign currency illegally;

(b) has been found guilty and convicted by a court of fraudulent or offences related to dishonesty;

(c) submits false information during or after the processing of the application for licence; or

(d) fails to comply with any provision of the Act, these Regulations or any directive issued by the Bank.

37.- (1) Where the Bank intends to suspend or revoke the licence, it shall issue a written notice of such intention to the bureau de change.

(2) The bureau de change shall have the right, within twenty one working days of the receipt of the notice referred to under sub-regulation (1), to apply to the Bank for review of the intended suspension or revocation stating the reasons and providing further information to the Bank.
(3) The Bank shall, within forty five days of the receipt of a bureau de change application, review its intention to suspend or revoke a bureau de change licence and notify the bureau de change of its decision in writing.

(4) Where a bureau de change fails to respond to the notice issued under sub regulation (1) or if the Bank is not satisfied with the cause given, the Bank may suspend or revoke, as the case may be, the licence and shall inform the bureau de change of its decision in writing.

(5) Where a bureau de change closes business or has its licence revoked, it shall be required to surrender the licence to the Bank within fourteen days.
